MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Central Intelligence

FROM: James H. McDonald
Acting Deputy Director for Administration

SUBJECT: Weekly Report for Period Ending 12 October 1984

1. Progress reports on tasks assigned by the DCI/DDCI:

None.

2. Items/events of interest:

a. Year-end closing of Fiscal Year 1984 was successfully accomplished on 5 October 1984. Appropriated funds were 99.92% obligated.

b. The temporary West A parking lot went into use on the morning of 9 October. This new lot contains approximately 1,300 spaces. Concurrent with the availability of this lot, about 1,300 West parking lot spaces were turned over to the George Hyman Construction Company so that excavating for the three-level parking deck could begin. The transition from West to West A took place without significant difficulty.

c. A Scope of Work is being prepared to task Dicon with the study and design to replace the motors on the fans in the Headquarters Mechanical Room. The purpose of this work is to increase the amount of air circulating throughout the Headquarters Building as part of the process to improve the overall environment in the building.

e. The Office of Communications (OC) deployed a Wang Intelligent Communications Terminal to [redacted] in support of Secretary of State Shultz and National Security Advisor McFarlane. This was the first portable deployment of this system, and it was used to process all State and White House communications to and from these individuals via the OC network.

f. As requested by the Air Force, OC is in the process of providing secure voice connectivity between Headquarters and a new Intelligence Community secure telephone switch being installed within the Pentagon; this will enhance secure voice capability in the Intelligence Community.

g. Graduates of the 10 - 21 September special running of the Seminar on Intelligence Analysis (SIA) for the Office of Global Issues (OGI) applied the analytical methods taught in the course to several intelligence issues. In particular, analysts, using the creativity techniques, identified several aspects to an intelligence problem not previously recognized as important. A group of these SIA graduates also met at the request of the Director of OGI to define new areas of research in international trade. Significantly, all participants reported that the SIA techniques proved valuable and added insight and depth to their analysis of intelligence problems.

h. The Office of Security (OS) is participating in the internal investigation of FBI agent Richard Miller. Coordination is occurring within OS, and the Counterintelligence Staff [redacted] of the DO to determine the extent of compromise, if any, of Agency equities. OS has requested from the FBI an updated copy of the "Reporting Guidance: Foreign Intelligence Information," the document Miller reportedly gave to the Soviets.

i. OS met with representatives of [redacted] They briefed OS on current problems they are encountering in the computer security arena and anticipated problems in future computer upgrades. Since they are handling Sensitive Compartmented Information over which the Agency has cognizance, OS provided them with computer security guidelines and standards for the processing and handling of that material.

25X1

j. On 5 October, the Director of Security testified before the Department of State's Blue Ribbon Panel chaired by Admiral Inman. The topic was Overseas Security.

3. Significant activities anticipated during the coming week:

a. On Wednesday, 27 October, the Acting DDA will accompany the DCI for a visit to the Office of Information Services at Ames Building.

b. On Wednesday afternoon, 17 October, the Acting DDA will address an Office of Training and Education Conference [redacted]

c. The DDA will return to Washington on Thursday, 18 October.
